

MARITIME DUFFERIN GOLD CORP.

Analytical Laboratory Fire Assayer/Sample Preparation worker:

Reporting to the Chief Assayer, you will be involved in the day to day operation of a mineral processing laboratory working with classical wet chemistry, AAS, fire assay and sample preparation. Main duties are to prepare and fire assay various types of geological and process samples to maintain timely reporting of information. Ability to multi-task within a team environment is essential as is the ability to work shifts, a possibility.

Qualifications:

Ideally two years minimum fire assaying experience working with fire assay and cupellation furnaces and the operation of all sample preparation equipment.

Ability to operate and maintain fire assay equipment. Perform fire assay related tasks with accuracy and precision. Ability to utilize spreadsheet, word processing and database applications. Organize and prioritize work. Excellent written and oral communication skills in english.

Please respond by email to Glenn Windsor, Mill Superintendent at gwindsor@dufferingold.com